

OCRE Construction, Commissioning & Installation

OCRE employs offshore construction individuals and teams. We cover project management, construction management, logistics, project controls, planning, heavy lift supervision, commissioning, procurement and contract management. We also provide teams of riggers and rigger foremen. Our professionals have drive, are flexible and deliver sustainable solutions. We are prepared to share risk with our clients and act as a specialist contractor.

Expertise areas

Engineering & Design

Health Safety & Quality

Project Management & Support

Construction, Commissioning & Installation

Maritime Operations

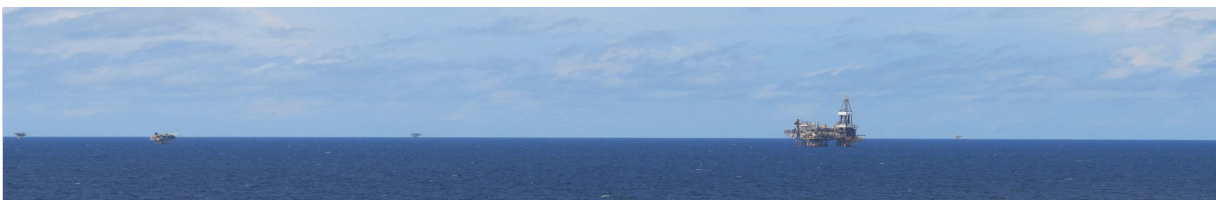

Why OCRE for Construction, Commissioning & Installation?

Our professionals help to realise your projects in time and in budget. We have the capacity to think, be bright and perform during the construction, commissioning, transport and installation phases. Our work methods result in innovative, cost-saving solutions.

We offer:

- Project management
- Construction management
- Heavy lift expertise
- Installation expertise
- Deck specialists
- Commissioning professionals
- Client representatives
- Offshore installation management

OCRE is NEN 4400-1 certified.

OCRE is partner of IND (ministry of security and justice), we employ highly skilled migrants.