

OCRE Project Management & Support

OCRE supplies offshore project management and support staff. Our project managers have minimum BSc level and have proven track record and references. Characterisation of our management style is drive, analytical skills and a realistic 'can-do' approach when challenged. We deliver successful projects with sustainable and profitable solutions to technical and operational challenges.

Expertise areas

Engineering & Design

Health Safety & Quality

Project Management & Support

Construction, Commissioning & Installation

Maritime Operations

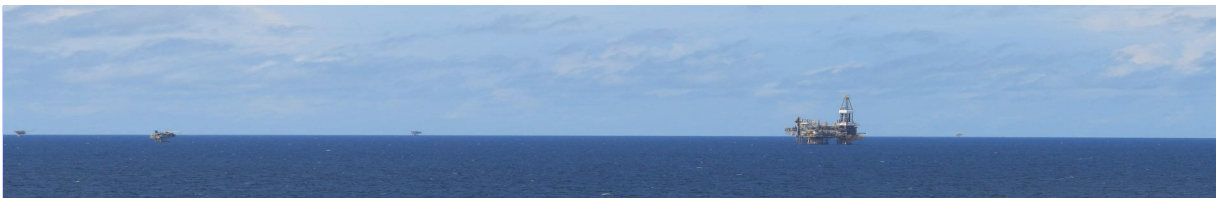

Why OCRE for Project Management & Support?

We employ and know the best project managers and other leading professionals in the offshore industry. We offer these professionals continuity, permanent education and rewarding projects. We supply the best possible service to our clients for a cost effective rate with high flexibility.

Services

- Project management
- Construction management
- Package management
- Offshore installation management
- Document control
- Financial control
- Planning

OCRE is NEN 4400-1 certified.

OCRE is partner of IND (ministry of security and justice), we employ highly skilled migrants.